Financial Reconstruction (BIFR) under the provisions of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provision) Act, 1985. Out of these, 148 cases were disposed of and the remaining 53 cases were pending with the BIFR at various stages of enquiry. Cases of 66 companies out of 148 were recomended by the BIFR for winding up to the concerned High Court under section 20(1) of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provision) Act, 1985. Rehabilitation schemes were sanctioned/approved in the cases of 20 mills, cases of 43 mills were dismissed as non maintainable, cases of 3 mills turned positive during enquiry and 16 mills were declared no longer sick.

(c) Sickness/closer of mills can generally be attributed to small and uneconomic size of the mill, inadequate availability and high cost of raw material, technological obsolescence, costly and inadequate availability of grid power, high capital cost, managerial problems etc.
